JULY 16. 1741.

NUMB. 657.

The Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

LONDON, April 25. 1741.

This Day His Majeſty put an End to the Seſſion, by the following moſt gracious SPEECH to both Houſes.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Zeal and Diſpatch with which you have gone thro' the publick Buſineſs, during the Courſe of this Seſſion, are undeniable Proofs of your ſteady Regard to the Welfare of your Country, and conſequently the moſt acceptable Teſtimonies of your Duty and Affection to me. The powerful Aſſiſtance which you have given me for carrying on the juſt and neceſſary War, in which I am engaged, is the beſt Means of reducing our Enemies to Reaſon; and the Vigour and Earneſtneſs which you have ſo ſeaſonably ſhewn for the Defence of the Houſe of Auſtria, and the Maintenance of the Ballance and Liberties of Europe, muſt give the greateſt Encouragement to our Friends. Theſe are the Methods to ſecure to this Nation that Weight and Influence abroad, which its natural Strength and Situation entitle it to.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

It is with particular Satisfaction, I acknowledge your Readineſs and Application, in raiſing the Supplies for the Service of the current Year; which you have done with ſo juſt a Regard to the preſent Exigencies of the Publick, as ſhews you to be the true Repreſentatives of my faithful Commons.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I cannot part with this Parliament without publickly returning you my Thanks, for the many eminent Inſtances which you have given me, of your Fidelity and Affection to my Perſon and Government; your fixed Reſolution to maintain the Proteſtant Succeſſion in my Family; and your unſhaken Adherence to the true Intereſt of your Country. You have, with the moſt becoming Spirit and Firmneſs, exerted yourſelves in vindicating and defending the Honour of my Crown, and the undoubted Rights of Navigation and Commerce belonging to my Subjects; and enabled me to revenge thoſe Wrongs and Inſults, which, contrary to the Faith of Treaties, had been committed againſt both. In ſo critical a Conjuncture, you have ſupported the national Credit, and ſtrengthened the Hands of my Government, to a Degree exceeding the Expectations of thoſe, who wiſhed well to us; and to the manifeſt Diſappointment of ſuch as envied our Proſperity. At the ſame Time, you have demonſtrated to all the World, That Great Britain is in a Condition, not only to defend herſelf, but alſo to afford a due Support to her Allies, and the common Cauſe of Europe. As ſuch a Conduct muſt give a laſting Reputation to this Parliament, ſo it will be the Subject of Emulation to thoſe which ſhall come after it.

I will immediately give the neceſſary Orders for calling a new Parliament. There is not any Thing I ſet ſo high a Value upon, as the Love and Affection of my People; in which I have ſo entire a Confidence, that it is with great Satisfaction I ſee this Opportunity put into their Hands of giving me freſh Proofs of it, in the Choice of their Repreſentatives.

On the preſent Eſtabliſhment depends the Continuance of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State; and in this Conſtitution conſiſts the Security of the preſent Eſtabliſhment: Nothing can hurt the one, that will not, in Proportion, undermine and weaken the other. For my Part, the uniform Preſervation of both, and the Maintenance of the religious and civil Rights of all my Subjects, have been, and ever ſhall be, my conſtant Care. Thoſe who diſtinguiſh themſelves by perſevering in theſe Principles, ſhall always find my Countenance and Favour; and, by invariably purſuing theſe wiſe and honeſt Meaſures, we may entertain the beſt grounded Hopes, that, under the Protection of the Divine Providence, the Happineſs of Great-Britain will be perpetuated to Poſterity.

April 28. A Proclamation was publiſhed for diſſolving the preſent Parliament, and calling a new one, the Writs bearing Date this Day, and to be return'd June 25; and the Election for the 16 Scots Peers to be June 13. The two Houſes of Convocation were likewiſe diſſolved by Order of Council, and Writs for electing new Members, are to bear Date the 8th of May, and to be returnable July 3.

At the Court at St. James's the 6th Day of May, 1741.

PRESENT, The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty in Council this Day declaring his Intention of going out of the Kingdom for a ſhort Time, was pleaſed to nominate the following Perſons to be Lords Juſtices for the Adminiſtration of the Government during his Majeſty's Abſence.

John Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury. Philip Lord Hardwicke, Lord Chancellor. Spencer Earl of Wilmington, Lord Preſident. John Lord Hervey, Lord Privy Seal. Lionel Cranfield Duke of Dorſet, Lord Steward. Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain. Charles Duke of Richmond, Maſter of the Horſe. Charles Duke of Bolton. William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. John Duke of Montagu, Maſter-General of the Ordnance. Thomas Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Henry Earl of Pembroke, Groom of the Stole. Archibald Earl of Ilay. William Lord Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State. Sir Robert Walpole, Knight of the moſt noble Order of the Garter, First Commiſſioner of the Treaſury. And, Sir Charles Wager, Knt. First Commiſſioner of the Admiralty.

May 11. Yeſterday Morning Mr. Griffin, one of the King's Meſſengers, arrived at St. James's, who brought an Account that his Majeſty landed ſafely at Helvoetſluys on Friday Night about 9 o' Clock, and proceeded from thence on his Way to Hanover; and laſt Night ſeveral of the Lords Juſtices met at the Cockpit at Whitehall, and open'd their Commiſſion.

Laſt Night Sir Charles Wager, who convoy'd his Majeſty to Holland, arriv'd at his Houſe at the Admiralty Office.

May

May 4. On Saturday laſt the Tenders belonging to the Barfleur and Duke Men of War brought into the Downs a Barcalonga, call'd the N. S. de la Aſſumption, commanded by Don Auguſtino Samana. She was fitted out at St. Sebaſtians, mounts 4 Carriage and 6 Swivel Guns, and had 45 Men on board. We hear that the Tenders on ſeeing her, agreed to clap her a-board at once, which they executed accordingly, and took her with very little Reſiſtance.

It is confidently aſſerted, That the French Fleet have, from the Time they left Europe to their Return, loſt 5000 Men, including thoſe who died on board the Ships ſtill abroad, and of whom the others brought an exact Account.

On Saturday laſt James Oglethorpe and Peter Burrell, Eſqrs. were elected Burgeſſes to ſerve in the enſuing Parliament, for the Borough of Haſlemere in Surrey.

May 11. On Friday Admiral Vernon and Samuel Kent, Eſq; of Vaux-hall, were choſen Members for Ipſwich, againſt Knox Ward, Eſq;

Laſt Thurſday Mr. Greenville, Nephew of the Lord Cobham, and Mr. Denton, were choſen Members of Parliament for the Town of Buckingham, without ſpending Six Pence; and we heartily wiſh we could ſay the ſame of any one Borough beſides in Great Britain.

On Friday laſt Capel Hanbury and John Caſwall, Eſqrs. were choſen Members for Leominſter.

On Wedneſday laſt the Hon. George Clinton, Eſq; Uncle to the preſent Earl of Lincoln, kiſs'd his Majeſty's Hand, on his being appointed Governor of New-York.

They write from Leghorn, that M. Wachtendonck was making Preparations for a vigorous Reſiſtance in caſe of an Attack, having palliſadoed the Outſide of Leghorn, and aſſembled his Troops, in order to form a Camp near Sienna.

Letters from Sweden import, that 40 Galleys, with Tranſports, of about 10000 Men on board, ſail'd from Carelſcroon the 5th Inſt. N. S. for Finland, under the Convoy of 4 Men of War.

A Perſon of Quality ſet out the 6th Inſtant from Stockholm, for France, to acquaint that Court with the ſailing of the above Tranſports, and to ſollicit the Auxiliary Squadron which his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty promiſed to ſend into the Baltick for the Service of Sweden.

The Ruſſian Ambaſſador at Stockholm has not appear'd at Court for ſome time, and expects to receive Orders daily for his Return home.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague.

The Marquis de St. Gilles, Ambaſſador here from Spain, having receiv'd Diſpatches from the Prince of Campo Florido, Ambaſſador from the ſame Court at Paris, the Contents whereof he communicated to the Marquis de Fenelon, which occaſion'd high Words between theſe two Miniſters. The Diſpatches related to the Return of the French Squadrons to Europe, no other Part of them remaining in America than 6 Men of War at St. Domingo, under the Command of the Chevalier Neſmond, which are likewiſe ſoon expected Home. The Spaniſh Ambaſſador ſaid, on this Occaſion, "That his Court had juſt Ground to be diſſatisfied with this unforeſeen Return, eſpecially at a Time when the Engliſh had received ſuch conſiderable Reinforcements in America, as to be in a Condition to invade divers Poſſeſſions of his Catholick Majeſty; and this the moſt Chriſtian King had promiſed to hinder, by Means of theſe Squadrons, which were afterwards to favour the Return of the Galleons, or at leaſt to have brought home the Treaſures of thoſe Ships, according to the Scheme concerted between the two Courts, and purſuant to what his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had declared in all the Courts in Europe." As to the firſt Article, M. de Fenelon anſwered this Miniſter, That there would be the utmoſt Reaſon to be aſtoniſh'd at this pretended Diſſatisfaction of the Court of Spain, after it came to be known, that when the King his Maſter ſent his Squadrons into America to protect the Poſſeſſions of his Catholick Majeſty, he did not ſend them to combat with Famine, and in ſhort, a Want of all Neceſſaries: That it was well known that the Poſſeſſions of his Catholick Majeſty in that Part of the World, were not in a Condition to furniſh Proviſions for 24 Men of War, mann'd as thoſe were of theſe two Squadrons: That the Court of Spain had promiſed that it would furniſh them with Proviſions and Neceſſaries in abundante, out of the rich Provinces of his Catholick Majeſty, and that the Governors thereof ſhould be ordered to contribute all in their Power to ſupply their Wants; but that very far therefrom, the Ships of the King could not obtain the leaſt Refreſhment, or any thing elſe from the Spaniards, who ſeem'd to be at leaſt conſenting, that the People on Board the French Ships ſhould periſh with Hunger and Want: A great Number of both Officers and Men did ſo, inſomuch that the Commanders of theſe Squadrons were under a Neceſſity of returning Home, in order to prevent a total Deſtruction of them. And as to the Treaſure of the Galleons, the French Squadron are very far from being blameable for not bringing it to Europe with them, which they would certainly moſt willingly have done, but the Spaniſh Governors are not ſo eaſily perſuaded to part with it, even to Spaniards themſelves. So that upon the whole, his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has much the greateſt Reaſon to complain of the Conduct of the Spaniards, who have by no means acted like Friends on this Occaſion. Since this Conteſt, theſe Miniſters ſeldom ſee one another; whereas the Marquis de Fenelon now viſits Mr. Trevor, who he had not ſeen for ſeveral Weeks before.

Letters from Corunna of the 19th of April, N. S. bring a Confirmation that the Bourbon Man of War of 74 Guns, founder'd the 12th of the ſame Month within 3 Leagues of Cape Finiſter, and of the Crew only 33 were ſaved.

They ſend us a Report from Francfort, that on the 17th of laſt Month, a Convention was ſign'd between the Courts of Vienna, Peterſbourgh and Dreſden, for ſupporting the Queen of Hungary's Intereſt with Reſpect to the Affair of Sileſia.

From Madrid we hear, that the Duke de Montemar was, in a few Days to put himſelf at the Head of the Troops deſtin'd for the Italian Expedition; in the mean Time the Generals that are to ſerve under him, received Orders to repair forthwith to Catalonia. The Infant Don Philip's Departure is ſtill talk'd of.

Letters in Town adviſe, that the Durſley Galley of 20 Guns, has taken off the Streights Mouth, a large Spaniſh Ship, bound for Oran, having on board 300 Head of Cattle, 600 Sacks of Flour, 200 Soldiers, and a great Number of Sailors. In the Engagement the Spaniards boarded the Man of War twice, but were beaten off, taken and carried into Gibraltar.

Capt. Norris, of the Kinſale Man of War, ſtation'd off Lisbon, has taken and carried in there a Spaniſh Privateer of 10 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, and 90 Men.

The Zant, Capt. Whitwood. arriv'd at Lisbon from Leghorn, was between Cape Vincent aud Cape St. Mary, on the 16th of April, chas'd for 12 Hours by 8 Spaniſh Men of War. There were in Company with him the Maremaid, Capt. James from Leocata, and the London-Poſt, Capt. Ruſſel from Gallipoli, for London, who lay by, taking the Spaniards for the Engliſh Fleet.

Admiral Haddock has ſent Part of his Squadron in queſt of the above Spaniſh Men of War.

Letters from Gibraltar confirm the Taking of two Dutch Ships, bound from the Spaniſh Weſt Indies for Cadiz, and of their being brought in there, one of which is valued at 150000 l. Sterling.

Yeſterday came Advice that the Ann, Capt. Mitchel from Falmouth, for Portugal, and Capt. Buck for Liverpool, are both taken by the Spaniards and carried into Vigo.

A Scooner, Capt. Murry, from New-England, with a Sloop, Capt. Webb from Dublin, are alſo taken near Lisbon.

A large Spaniſh Privateer having been ſeen cruizing off of the Orkeney's, a 20 Gun Ship is order'd to thoſe Parts.

The Forces order'd for Flanders are to encamp on Blackheath till the time of their Embarkation.

May 14. Yeſterday the Rt. Hon. Daniel Lambert, Eſq; Lord-Mayor; Sir John Barnard, Knt. Sir Robert Godſchall, Knt. and George Heathcote, Eſq; were by the Sheriffs at Guildhall declar'd duly elected Members of the enſuing Parliament for this City.

May 15. There is much Talk of a grand Alliance to be form'd at Hanover, in order to ſecure the Ballance of Power in Europe.

They are buſy at Woolwich in preparing military Stores for the Fleet intended for the Baltick.

And we hear that ſome Bomb Veſſels and Fireſhips are ordered to join the Men of War intended for that Fleet.

Our

Our Liſbon Letters aſſure us, That the nine Spaniſh Men of War, that ſail'd from Cadiz ſome time ſince, are gone to the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies; and that Admiral Haddock had ſent a light Ship with an Expreſs thereof to Admiral Vernon, who poſſibly may interrupt them in their Courſe.

BOSTON, July 6.

We find by the London Prints, that his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint WILLIAM SHERLEY, Eſq; to be Governor of this Province, and 'tis ſaid his Commiſſion is daily expected in a Maſt Ship that was to ſail the latter End of May laſt.

We alſo hear, that his Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint BENNING WENTWORTH, Eſq; to be Governor of New-Hampſhire, and that he is expected over in the ſaid Maſt Ship.

NEW-YORK, July 13.

Farther Diſcoveries are made as to the Negro Plot, and it is fear'd that many Whites are engaged in it; Blacks there are 42 ordered for Tranſportation, and about a hundred yet in Goal, and ſeven Whites which are ſtrongly ſuſpected, one having already partly confeſs'd and impeach'd others, ſome of theſe have abſconded, and ſome it is believed have made their Eſcape. Hewſon's Daughter is repriev'd till next Friday, and this Week her Grand Father and Uncles are to be brought to Town.
